ATALLY SHOT BY FRIEND.

hile Placing Targets for Practice Score Marker Receives Bullet in Brain

While engaging in target practice sterday afternoon on the Shuey farm, st west of Greensburg, Lewis P. Went- ll accidently shot and killed Edward ggins, a friend, who was acting as score eper. The bullet entered Heggin's ad just above the right ear, passing rough and coming out about three ches above the left. A physician was stily called but could do nothing to re- ve the injured man, he died in a short ie.

Wentzell, who was almost heartbroken er the unfortunate affair, at once gave nself up to district attorney Cunning- n, who after learning the facts, in- med Wentzell that no blame what- er could be attached to him. The ooting match which was to be held at Shuey farm, was for a beef and quite a mber of prominent Greensburg marks- n were present. The contest was to rt at one o'clock but the men were in- ging in target practice. Wentzell who No 13 had just taken his position to ot when Heggins stepped out to place target which was marked No. 13. A ort was heard and Heggins instantly pped. Those present rushed to his e and found him in a dying condition. ntzell recently had his rifle which is a pattern fitted with a hair trigger ich is probably responsible for the idental discharge of the weapon. Heg- s who was about 35 years of age was narried and a relative of the Shuey ily and employed on the farm. Mr. ntzell has the sympathy of everyone his most unfortunate affair.

Shot Man Found With His Wife.

Finding his wife locked in his home with another man, Frederick Small tried to kill a son of a prominent Pennsylvania railroad conductor yesterday. The sensational shooting occurred in Wilkinsburg and Claude W. Barnhart, a son of A. L. Barnhart, a well known passenger conductor on the Pittsburg division of the Pennsylvania railroad, who is widely connected in Westmoreland county, and who, at one time was a resident of Greensburg, was the victim, and it was all on account of his intimacy with another man's wife. Barnhart will not die, and the only reason he will not is on account of the bad markmanship of the injured husband.

Bowling Contest Tonight.

What promises to be an exceedingly interesting bowling match, will take place this evening when the fast Wilmerding five will go up against Al Schuler's picked team of Monessen's crack bowlers. The game will start promptly at 8:30 on the Capitol alleys and that it will prove exciting enough to suit all witnesses, is beyond doubt. Both teams have won the majority of games they have played so far this season and as this is the first time they have met, an exceptionally good contest is looked for. Following is Monessen's lineup: Schuler, Byers, McKensie, Clark and Doney.

Sam Wagner Surprised.

Quite a number of young people gathered at the home of Sam Wagner last night taking Sam completely by surprise. Book Collecting Madness.

The [illegible] of book collectors is illustrated [illegible] Rev. [illegible] Loson, an English [illegible] who would buy a [illegible] he had forty copies of [illegible] and [illegible] among bundles [illegible] covered with dust [illegible] later [illegible] mentions [illegible] covetousness [illegible] with their collection.

Mr. Heber, the brother of the bishop, bought all that [illegible] by cartloads and [illegible] libraries, on which in some cases he never cast his eyes.

Of a similar [illegible] the famous Antoine [illegible] said to have lived [illegible] and whose [illegible]. The old bibliomaniac [illegible] gave made of piles and masses of books, with hardly room for his cooking [illegible] with [illegible] between [illegible]. He died in 1711, in his [illegible] ty, [illegible].—London Standard.

The Origin of Sugar.

Sugar has [illegible] of history, but [illegible]. The Chinese appear [illegible] dates with [illegible] years, and it [illegible] than in Europe [illegible] made from a juicy reed [illegible] of Alexander the Great [illegible] Greece in [illegible] Sir Walter Raleigh [illegible] later carried tobacco [illegible] to England. But even so late [illegible] sugar was still a rarity in [illegible]. The [illegible] physicians [illegible] remedy for certain maladies. Recent experiments show that sugar has remarkable sustaining [illegible] by those undergoing great fatigue. The invention of the [illegible] for refining sugar is ascribed to the Arabs, and a Venetian merchant is said to have purchased the secret from them and introduced the process in Sicily. The refining of sugar was first practiced in England about 1659.

The Word "Row."

"Row" is one of the many words which are rising in respectability with advancing age. Todd's edition of Johnson's dictionary [illegible] it as "a very low expression." Since it appears to have been occasionally written "rowe" about a century ago some have wished to find its origin in the French "roue." Todd identifies it with the older "rouse," a [illegible] drinking glass or [illegible], in which sense that word [illegible] in Shakespeare. Hamlet observes that "the king doth wake tonight and takes his rouse." "Row" is supposed to be a false singular formed from "rouse," mistaken for a plural, as "pea" for "pease," "sherry" from "sherris," "cherry" from [illegible] simpler to explain [illegible] "rowdedow," [illegible] word [illegible] noise.

The Late Stranger.

An attorney in Philadelphia who makes a specialty of [illegible] against railway companies [illegible] of injuries due to [illegible] tells of the trouble experienced in the cross examination of [illegible] witness [illegible] his witness had [illegible] carefully coached by counsel for the company, for when [illegible] him, "Was the man found on the track a total stranger?" the wary [illegible] replied:

"I should say [illegible] that he left [illegible] I could say [illegible] he were a perfect stranger."—Woman's Home Companion.

Suspicious Fervor.

"Well, [illegible] the deacon, "that was a fine [illegible] last night."

"Thank you, [illegible]. I am very glad to hear you say so."

"Yes, it was a [illegible] long and fervent. A [illegible] been doing any [illegible]. You can confide in me with the utmost confidence. I wouldn't betray you for anything in the world."—Chicago Record Herald.

He Called the Turn.

"I came," [illegible] the intimate friend of the family, "to make my dinner call."

"But," they protested, "you haven't been here to dinner lately."

"I know that," he [illegible], "and I thought if I called that defect might be remedied."

An invitation was promptly forthcoming.—New York Press.

Buying a Book.

Here's a conversation I overheard between two women in a book store:

"Isn't that a pretty book?"

"Charming."

"I am sure Eva would like that." Then to the clerk, "I'll take this book."

As the clerk was wrapping it up she added: "What is it, by the way? I didn't look."—Boston Record.

The Church At Robbindale

[Original.]

When oil and water meet there is no mingling. The same is true of zeal and conventionality. At least, the Rev. Frederick Forsythe found it so when he accepted the position of assistant pastor of Christ church of Robbindale. The town and the church had been founded by Horatio Robbins, a man very set in his ways, and he had left his impress upon both, especially the church. If there ever was a young man wrapped in his profession, it was Mr. Forsythe. Moreover, he was remarkably well fitted for it.

But no one in Robbindale looked so far ahead. The clergyman was but twenty-six years old, and, though it was admitted that he had "the gift of gab," it was feared that he lacked that discretion necessary to get on with the members of Christ church. There was one essential to his retaining his position, and that was that he should take a wife from among the young girls of the congregation. He was not told this. He was simply informed when called to the church that his unwedded condition was an objection and that his permanency would depend upon his marrying.

Mr. Forsythe found a congregation the membership of which had descended exclusively from parent to child. No one had ever joined the church from any other circle—that is, to remain. Several had tried it, but, not being noticed by any of the members, had quietly dropped out. Mr. Forsythe had scarcely entered upon his duties before he created an undercurrent of inquietude by drawing a number of outsiders into the fold. The worst feature of the innovation was that none of the new members was anything like the Christ churchers. Indeed, one of the oldest and most respectable ladies pronounced them "common."

When Mr. Forsythe found that his converts were being tabooed he preached a sermon on Christian fellowship, in which he gently chided his flock for shutting themselves up in their little church when there was a harvest waiting to be gathered in the broad fields. He was surprised afterward to notice that his sermon had been received as a matter of course. No one thought it necessary to dissent from what was the very essence of Christianity, but no one proposed to pay any attention to his exhortation except in a spiritual way—that is, they would feel the benefit of the spiritual admonition, but Christ church would go right on in its beaten path. One person only objected openly to the proposed departure. Mrs. MacPherson said: "I'm Scootch mesel' and was a member of a church in Scootland. No one in the church there that didn't know me ever spoke to me, and I never spoke to any one I didn't know."

This was said to the pastor as a gentle admonition that he had better not go wandering about from Christ church traditions, but keep within them. Mrs. MacPherson, being older than he and one of the wealthiest members of the congregation, could afford to speak thus plainly and to the point, but from no other of them did he get one word for or against his effort to make an opening for the entrance of sinners in the walls of Christ church.

When Mr. Forsythe had preached the gospel to the Christ churchers an even six months one of the deacons called on him informally at his study ostensibly to discover if there was any prospect of his taking a wife, but really to make it plain to him that if he did not do so within the next six months the congregation would find it essential to call a pastor with a woman to perform those church functions pertaining to women. Mr. Forsythe said that he would take the matter under consideration in all its bearings, and the deacon left, feeling well satisfied. The result of the interview was soon whispered about through the members of the fold, and the young ladies were on a tiptoe of expectation.

A few months after this the pastor gave out through the deacon that after the Wednesday evening prayer meeting he would make an announcement of importance in regard to his connection with the church. The members were puzzled. The pastor had not been observed to be paying attention to any of the girls of the congregation, though some minx might have caught him on the sly. This must be the explanation. The deacon had made him understand what was required of him if he kept his position, and "calls" for young men just out of seminaries at a salary of $1,200 a year did not grow on bushes. Besides, if a call had been made it would have been preferred by an exhibition sermon. Mr. Forsythe had been absent only one Sunday, and that was when his mother was ill.

On the evening of the expected announcement the prayer meeting comprised all the women of the church and most of the men. When the service was over, Mr. Forsythe, standing beside the pulpit, said:

"I have long been anxious for a working field of the broadest character. Two have tempted me—foreign missions and the Salvation Army. But my elders of the clergy have persuaded me that I should remain in the pulpit. I have accepted a call from the Second church of M., where my mother resides."

Great was the astonishment at this outcome, but it was greater when the facts came out that the salary attached to the new position was $4,000 and the clergyman was engaged to one of the members of the church that had offered it, a devoted worker in church charities.

Mr. Forsythe is now one of the principal pulpit orators of America.

The pains of rheumatism,
The tired-out feelings,
You must reach the spot—get at the cause.
In most cases 'tis the kidneys.
Doan's Kidney Pills are for the kidneys.

Do Not Feel Fit For Anything

Charles Bierbach, stone contractor, living at 2625 Chestnut St., Erie, Pa., says: "For two years I had kidney trouble, and there was such a severe pain through my loins and limbs that I could not stoop or straighten up without great pain, had difficulty in getting about and was unable to rest at night, arising in the morning tired and worn out. The kidney secretions were irregular and deposited a heavy sediment. Doctors treated me for rheumatism, but failed to help me. I lost all confidence in medicine, but Doan's Kidney Pills relieved me so quickly and so thoroughly that I gladly made a statement to that effect for publication. This was in 1898, and during the six years which have elapsed I have never known Doan's Kidney Pills to fail."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mr. Bierbach will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. For sale by all druggists; price, 50 cents per box.

One would think the Laxative idea in a cough syrup should have been advanced long before it was. It seems the only rational remedy for Coughs and Colds would be to move the bowels and clean the mucous membranes of the throat and lungs at the same time. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar does this. It is the Origanal Laxative Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. Tastes good and is harmless.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

The tar that is contained in Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar is harmless. It is not coal tar, but is obtained from the pine trees of our own native forests. Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar is the best remedy for colds because it acts on the bowels—thus expelling all colds from the system. Bee's is the origanal Laxative Honey and Tar, and is best for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, lung and bronchial effections. Sold by C. A. Light.

Don't frown—look pleasant. If you are suffering from indigestion or sour stomach, take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Hon. Jake Moore, of Atlanta, Ga., says: "I suffered more than 20 years with indigestion. A friend recommended Kodol. It relieved me in one day and I now enjoy better health than for many years." Kodol digests what you eat, relieves sour stomach, gas on stomach, belching, etc.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

A liquid cold cure for children that is pleasant, harmless and effective is Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar. Superior to all other cough syrups or cold remedies because it acts on the bowels. An ideal remedy for Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough and all curable lung and bronchial effections in child or adult. Pleasant to take. Sold by C. A. Light.

If you are troubled with Piles and can't find a cure, try Witch Hazel Salve, but be sure you get that made by E. C. De Witt & Co., Chicago. It is the Origanal. If you have used Witch Hazel Salve without being releived it is probable that you got hold of one of the many worthless counterfeits that are sold on the reputation of the genuine De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

The gums and resins obtained from pine trees have long been reconized as highly beneficial in the treatment of backache, kidney and bladder troubles. Pine-ules is the name of a new medicine, the principle ingredients of which come from the pine forests of our own native land. Sold by C. A. Light.

Mothers everywhere praise One Minute Cough Cure for the sufferings it has relieved and the lives of their little ones it has saved. A certian cure for coughs, croup and whooping cough. Makes breathing easy, cuts out phlegm, and draws out the inflammation. It should be kept on hand for immediate use.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

It is not difficult to relieve blind bleeding, itching or protruding piles with ManZan, the great pile remedy. It is put up in collapsable tubes with nozzle, and may be introduced and applied at the seat of the trouble. Stops pain instantly. Sold by C. A. Light.

Indigestion is much of a hapit. Don't get the habit. Take a little Kodol Dyspepsia Cure after eating and you will quit belching, puffing, palpitating and frowning Kodol Digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet—Sold by R. W. Beck.

For bloating, belching, indigestion, etc., eat a Ring,s Dyspepsia Tablet after meals. Sold by C. A. Light.

The best safeguard against headache, constipation and liver troubles is De Witt's Little Early Risers. Keep a vial of these famous little pills in the house and take a dose at bedtime when you feel that the stomach and bowels need cleansing. They don't gripe.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

Salve! Salve! Spread the Salve, but let it be Pine Salve, natures remedy for cuts, burns, sores, etc. Sold by C. A. Light.

Diphtheria, sore throat croup. Instant relief, permanent cure. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. At any drug tore.

For headache, constipation, etc., Dade's Little Liver Pills are the best. They cleanse and tonic the liver. Sold by C. A. Light.

Dear Sir: Please ask your WIFE, DAUGHTER or SISTER to Read MY FREE Offer.

WISE WORDS OF SUFFERERS

From a Woman of Notre Dame, Ind.

I will mail, free of any charge, this Home Treatment with full instructions and history of my own case to any lady suffering with female trouble. You can cure yourself at home without the aid of any physician. It will cost you nothing to give the treatment a trial, and if you decide to continue it will only cost you about 12 cents a week. It will not interfere with your work or occupation. I have nothing to sell. Tell other sufferers of it—This is all I ask. It cures all, young or old.

If you feel a bearing-down sensation, sense of impending evil, pain in the back or bowels, creeping feeling up the spine, a desire to cry frequently, hot flashes, weariness, frequent desire to urinate, or if you have Leucorrhea (Whites), Displacement or Falling of the Womb, Profuse, Scant or Painful Periods, Tumors or Growths, address Mrs. M. Summers for the Free Treatment and Full Information. Thousands besides myself have cured themselves with it. I send it in plain wrappers.

TO MOTHERS OF DAUGHTERS I will explain a simple Home Treatment which speedily and effectually cures Leucorrhea, Green Sickness and Painful or Irregular Menstruation in young ladies. It will save you anxiety and expense and save your daughter the humiliation of explaining her troubles to others. Plumpness and health always result from its use.

Wherever you live I can refer you to well known ladies of your own State or county who know and will gladly tell any sufferer that this Home Treatment really cures all diseased conditions of our delicate female organism, thoroughly strengthens relaxed muscles and ligaments which cause displacement, and makes women well. Write today, as this offer may not be made again.

"After using the above recommended Home Treatment but a short time, I was completely cured of Ulceration of the Womb and Soreness of the Ovaries, so that I can now again enjoy life." MRS. MARY McWADE, Box 10, East Sharpsburg, Pa.

"I was under treatment by five doctors who said nothing could be done except to have my organs removed by operation. This I refused to allow, and I am now cured by the use of your Home Treatment, which I shall praise as long as I live." MRS. SADIE McDOWELL, East Downingtown, Pa.

"From my own experience and through observation I know that your celebrated Home Treatment is a successful cure for Leucorrhea, Painful and Irregular Menstruation, and even Falling of the Womb." MRS. D. TOEBELMANN, 1913 So. Fifth St., Philadelphia, Pa.

"Laura," said Mr. Ferguson, hurriedly explaining matters in the kitchen, "I didn't want to bring the man home to dinner, but he kept staying and staying at the office, and I just had to ask him. You will have to put as good a face on it as you can."

"If you think I'm going to change my face on his account, George Ferguson," said his spouse, red and angry, "you'll have to think again! You may bring him out to dinner right now!"—Chicago Tribune.

What He Needed.

A father recently received the following note from a young man.

Dear Sir: Wood like your doter Jessie's hand in marage. She and I are in luv, and I think I nede a wife. Yures,
HENRY

The father replied by letter, saying.

Friend Henry: You don't need a wife. You need a spelling book. Get one and study it for a year. Then write me again.

The Chosen.

"Some men," remarked the assumptive citizen, "are born to lead."

"Yes," answered the cautious person, "but the trouble is that every man who feels a disinclination to do actual work takes it for granted that he is one of those men."—Washington Star.

Not Difficult.

High Priced Doctor—You are now convalescent, and all you need is exercise. You should walk ten to fifteen miles a day, sir, but your walking should have an object. Patient—All right, doctor. I'll travel around trying to borrow money to pay your bill.

Not to Be Repeated.

"Yes," an old Indian fighter was saying, "the Sioux done something to me that they could never do again."

"What was that?"

"They scalped me."

Jealousy is the greatest of misfortunes and the least pitied by those who cause it.—Rochefoucauld.

Justice a Device.

It is universally conceded that nothing short of divine justice can measure the intrinsic guilt of any action or administer punishment which shall be exactly commensurate to the crime. What we call justice is in fact a very rude device which finds its justification in the necessity to protect society.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Her Intention.

"So little Flutterby married the strongminded Miss Daring. I never supposed he had any intentions in that direction."

"He hadn't; the intention originated with her."—Chicago Tribune.

Life Sentence.

"Poverty's no crime."

"It ain't? Then why is it punishable by hard labor?"—Cleveland Leader.

Church Notes.

Bethany Baptist church, opera house hall, Henry Madtes, pastor—Morning subject "Elements of Strength in a Christian Church." Evening topic "The Glory of Young Men."

The services at the Christian church will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. B. Smith. The topic of the sermon at 11 a. m. will be "Hidden Treasures;" at 7:30 p. m. "Salvation." All are cordially invited to attend these services.

St. Paul's Lutheran church tomorrow, Rev. Allbeck will preach on "Jesus and the Syrophenician Woman" at 11 a. m. and on "The Money Question" at 7.30 p. m. Lenten services are being held every Wednesday night at 7:45 o'clock.

Will Dedicate New Hall.

The Finlander society of this city will dedicate their new hall tomorrow afternoon. The new building is an extremely pretty structure and is located at Motheral avenue and Sixth street. Elaborate preparations have been completed for the ceremony, a number of able speakers having been engaged for the occasion. Those who will address the audience are Lawyer A. J. Adams of Pittsburg and Miss Anna Lehtonen. They will speak in English and be interpreted by W. Niberg of Glassport.

In the evening the Finlander Temperance society will give an entertainment in the Finlander Temperance Hall. Prominent Finns from the various valley towns will be present and a large gathering is expected.

Large Crowd at Social.

The A. B. C social which was held at the home of Rev. Madtes, 1002 Morgan avenue, last evening by the B. Y. P. U. of the Bethany Baptist Church was an entire success. Besides a large attendance and a very gratifying sum being realized, an exceedingly pleasant evening was spent socially. A very interesting feature was the formation of words from the letters of the alphabet in which almost all present indulged, prizes being awarded to the most successful. Everyone present seemed to have spent a throroughly enjoyable evening.
